

2013 BUDGET UPDATE

On Wednesday 20th March 2013 George Osborne, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, will deliver a much anticipated Budget. Against the backdrop of continuing difficulties within the public finances this Budget is unlikely to be a favourable one. Indeed, the main debate has already focused on how to tax the wealthy without stalling growth.

In this essential briefing Mike Nangle will outline the key tax changes announced in the Budget, Mike will also take a brief look at some of Invest Northern Ireland's new incentives to encourage growth in Northern Ireland.

Richard Ramsey will discuss the wider implications for the Northern Ireland economy going forward.

Richard Ramsey is the NI Economist with Ulster Bank and has over ten years experience working in the Public Sector including spells as Principal Economist at the Department of Enterprise, Trade & Investment & Invest Northern Ireland.

Mike Nangle is the Managing Director with DNT Chartered Accountants one of the Provinces leading independent firms of Chartered Accountants. Formerly a Senior Inspector of Taxes, Mike is a chartered accountant who has worked in the profession for over twenty years. He provides Business Consultancy and tax advice to a wide range of local businesses and has lectured on a wide variety of business and tax issues for a range of audiences both Nationally and Internationally.
